

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The Southern Pacific continues crowded with freight business.

The Pioneer band gave its weekly concert upon the plaza last evening.

Company B. N. G. A., had a drill last evening, the first time the company has been out for several months.

D. M. Le Baron has received from Cincinnati an order for a carload of pomegranates, to be delivered soon.

There will be a meeting of the teachers of the public schools of Phoenix at the High School building at 10 a.m. tomorrow.

There is an important undelivered telegram at the office of the Arizona Telegraph Company addressed to Kate Murphy.

Several small prize fights have occurred during the last few days between lads of this city who believe themselves possessed of strength and skill.

L. W. Babbitt, of Mesa, a few days ago buried an infant son, which had succumbed to one of the numerous ills that beset the early life of man.

Porter Moffatt, overseer of road district No. 1, has completed his labors upon the new Tempe road, lying along the railroad. The road is now said to be an excellent one.

George Passey, of the Mesa Co-operative store, brought his young daughter to the city yesterday to be relieved of a malignant tumor, which had established itself upon her back. The operation was successfully performed by Dr. Hughes.

Arthur Marlow attempted yesterday to re-plevin the stock taken from him by the administrators of his brother's estate, but failed. The legal point was raised by the administrators that their claim upon the property began with George Marlow's decease, and that they therefore are the lawful custodians of the same.

F. A. Cook, who brought here last fall from Illinois a carload of fine horses, died on Wednesday at the Hamilton ranch, near the end of the Grand Avenue car line. He came here suffering from consumption, and, though benefited by the change, was finally the victim of the disease. The remains were embalmed and were yesterday shipped by express to relatives of the deceased in Illinois.

Two young men from Tempe came near getting into trouble Wednesday night. They painted the town a bright vermilion hue and started for home in the dusk of the morn. Before leaving town, however, they tried to bluff three police officers, with the result that they were lifted from their buggy and placed under Jailor Lindsey's care. They were yesterday fined $3 each in the Police court.

PERSONAL.

Doctor Belden is off for a short visit to El Paso.

Bernard Goldman and wife are expected home today.

Probate Judge Baxter went to Yuma yesterday. He will return by Monday.

Judge H. C. Gooding and H. B. Lightizer are expected to return today from Florence.

Miss Edith Robbins leaves this morning to attend school at Baldwin City, Kansas.

C. F. Ainsworth and Will Pinney returned yesterday from attendance on court at Florence.

Acting Governor N. O. Murphy goes to Gila Bend this morning to meet his returning family.

Charles Goldman left this morning for a business trip to San Francisco. He will be back in about a month.

Newell Herrick left on this morning's train for Anaheim, Cal., where he will meet his family, to return home with them.

R. L. Long has received a telegram from Oakland, Cal., from School Trustees Hine and Sweeney, notifying him of his appointment to the position of superintendent of the Phoenix public schools.

R. C. Powers arrived yesterday from People's Valley, Yavapai county, where he is interested in the Model mine. Several armatras are working upon the product of the property and the results are reported as quite satisfactory.

Sam Franklin, of this city, who has been spending several weeks of the warm weather up in the grassy expanse of People's Valley, has secured a home there in the purchase of the Wilkerson ranch. It is understood, however, that he will use it only for a summer residence, remaining in this valley for the larger portion of the year.
